

ORCHID: To Susan Davenny Wyner for 24 years of sterling service as music director and conductor of the Warren Philharmonic Orchestra. Wyner announced this week she will be retiring this spring from the post. She has led the orchestra to many quality performances over the past 2.5 decades and has attracted many stellar and internationally acclaimed musicians, such as renowned cellist Yo-Yo Ma in 2018. Fortunately, Wyner's departure from the orchestra will not be the last group in the Valley to benefit from her leadership expertise. She plans to remain as music director of Youngstown-based Opera Western Reserve. Wyner clearly has earned a standing ovation from scores of appreciative fans.
