Celebrating 52 Years!

Warren’s award-winning professional orchestra brings great music vividly to life for its community and thousands of area school children.

Its 55 musicians with 65 different instruments have won raves for their ‘superb performances’ ‘stellar musicianship’ and ‘captivating programs’ of music from the 1600’s to pieces just composed.

Music Director/Conductor Susan Davenny Wyner has received international acclaim for two careers. As a lyric soprano she performed at the Metropolitan Opera, won a Grammy and Grand Prix du Disc. As a conductor she has been called “electrifying, powerfully compelling and emotionally fearless” by the New York Times, a “rousing and joyous” leader by the Chicago Tribune, “Terrific” by Opera News Online, and praised for her “vibrant conducting and buoyant, sensitive baton” by the Boston Globe which also dubbed her “the best program maker in town!”

‘ART IN MUSIC’ CONTEST!

The WPO sponsors a School-wide ‘Art in Music’ Contest. School children are invited to create art about the orchestra’s instruments and its music. Over the last 11 years, hundreds of original and colorful drawings have been created and exhibited at area galleries and community centers. The winners of the ‘2018-19 Art in Music Contest’ will be awarded prizes at our Sunday October 28th 2018 Family Concert, and their fanciful drawings will be on display for all to enjoy.

‘STRINGS OF JOY!’

The Warren Philharmonic Orchestra, with the help of Trumbull 100, private donors and the Cafaro Foundation, is giving two years of free string lessons to Trumbull County students. Each student, from grades 3-7, is carefully selected through an application process and is loaned a free violin or cello to use. Since we began the program in 2015, the Strings of Joy students have appeared as soloists with the Warren Philharmonic Orchestra in two world premieres created especially for them by Pulitzer Prize winning composer Yehudi Wyner. Provided the WPO can obtain more funding and donations, we very much hope to continue the program in the Fall.
